REPORT OF FIREWARDS

—o—

The Firewards of Marlboro', beg to submit the following report:

There were six alarms for fire during the past year.

May 1, An alarm for a brush fire near Marlboro Depot, at 3 o'clock P. M. At 4 o'clock P. M., an alarm for fire at Picker house of Cheshire Blanket Co., Both companies responded but the fire was put out before they arrived.

No particular damage in either case.

July 10, An alarm for fire on premises of Miss Houghton, near Stone Pond and a call for help. The lightening striking the barn which was entirely consumed. The Steamer, with twenty-five men, was sent by order of the firewards.

The town of Dublin paid for their services, amounting to $76.15.

October 4, An alarm for brush fire on premises of Fred Hunt. Cause of fire claimed to be spark from locomotive.

November 5, An alarm for fire on Stone hill, The Steamer responded. The stone crusher building was totally destroyed.

February 16, An alarm for a fire in Dr. McColleston's old homestead, it being practically all destroyed by fire and water. The Steamer and Torrent Engine firemen, after laying 1350 feet of hose at an elevation of between 150 and 200 feet, did excellent work. It is a credit to the town, and the firemen and engineer should have especial credit for their efficient work in handling the engine.

The Engine House is now in fairly good repair. It having been partly new shingled and a new gutter put in.

There are a few minor improvements which might be made for the benefit of the apparatus, at small cost. The Firewards would recommend that a suitable sum of money be raised for this purpose.

Each company has a full quota of men.

The Firewards would suggest that it might be a good plan to purchase some new hose each year, thus keeping a suitable supply always on hand.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. APPLIN, {
C. B. COLLINS, } Firewards

BOARD OF HEALTH

For another year we have been immune from any contagious diseases and from any form of epidemic which goes to show the careful attention of the people to matters of sanitary conditions and the blessing of Almighty God.

We be-speak for the coming year the same care and attention to the small details of sanitary conditions which make for the health of any community.

STREET LIGHTING COMMITTEE

Your Street Lighting Committee would make the following report.

We signed a Contract with the Marlboro Electric Light, Heat and Power Co. for Streets Lights for One year from April 1st 1912, and they have spared no effort to give us the best of lights. We have nothing but praise for the Company and the manner in which we have been used.

We now have 61 lights on our streets for which we pay $16.00 per light, We need several more lights on our streets and while we may not feel like installing all that are needed at this time, we would recommend three new ones this year, two on Cottage St. and one at the fork of roads near the residence of L. M. Flint.

For the amount of money we spend for Street lighting, we know of no other source from which our citizens derive so much benefit and comfort.

Respectfully submitted,

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

To the President and Trustees of FROST FREE LIBRARY: The Librarian submits the following report:—

It is gratifying to be able to record a marked increase in the circulation of books and magazines during the year; due largely no doubt, to the fact that the time limit has been changed from four to two weeks and that two books, (one non-fiction) may now be taken on one card. The age limit has also been changed from twelve years to nine years.

The total circulation for the year ending Sept. 1, 1911 was 6182 and this year the number was 7506, an increase of 1324 books issued. The average weekly circulation was 144 books, an increase of 26 books a week, from last year. The magazine circulation has increased proportionately.

Eighty-five books have been added. Thanks are due Mrs. Horace Hendrick, for five books and to Mrs. Flora Wallace, H. I. Sheldon, A. R. Graves and I. W. Adams, for one book each.

An excellent portrait suitably framed of Mrs. Eliabeth Boyden, the first Librarian, has been presented by Mrs. E. B. Chandler of Boston.

In addition to the magazines purchased, "The Union Signal" has been presented by the local W. C. T. U., "The People's Home Journal" by Mr. Horace Hendrick and during the first half of the year, "The Congregationalist" and "The Advance" by Rev. J. S. Gove.

The receipts for the year are as follows:

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the Member's of the School Committee of the Town of Marlboro':

I have the honor of submitting for your consideration the report of the Superintendent of Schools for 1912-13.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

Since I have been connected with the schools of the town less than six months, it is impossible for me to make comparisons of the work at the present time with what it has been in the past.

My impressions of the schools from the start has been favorable. The teachers, as a whole, are instructors of exceptional faithfulness and ability, quick to understand and adopt suggestions, and blessed with those rare personal qualities which make them ideal directors of children.

The conditions under which their work has to be done, however, is anything but ideal, and the town should adopt a settled policy of doing something each year to remedy the situation.

Misfortunes of one kind and another have made serious interruptions in the work of many schools. There has been much changing and re-changing of teachers; but, so far as known this has been unavoidable, and by all the laws of chance, we are now due to have better luck for the future.

VISITS OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

Under the present arrangement the town is entitled to two-sevenths of the superintendent's time. This has been approximated by spending one full day each week and an extra half day every other week in town. Under ordinary conditions, the superintendent is able to visit each school once in three weeks,

Recently the following inspection blank has been used.

A copy may be interesting to the general public as showing some of the points we emphasize in the work and the variety of features a good teacher keeps in mind in the successful administration of his or her building. Most of our teachers keep daily plan books, showing the topics and assignments for each lesson taught; the written work of the pupils is saved from one visit to the next, and so not only the lesson in progress but all the work is open to a visitor's inspection.

TEACHERS' HELPS

A number of teachers' meetings were held in the village at the beginning of the year. Also the material presented at these meetings has been printed in typewritten form and distributed for permanent study and reference. A forty page booklet on school management and a forty-eight page booklet on English are in the hands of the teachers. Others are in preparation.

In these writings and in personal conferences with the teachers the superintendent has emphasized the importance of the physical welfare of the children, of cleanliness, ventilation, the care of supplies, cooperation with parents, punctual adherence to program and time schedule, the advantage of having each day's work arranged and planned beforehand; efficient methods of teaching various subjects, the virtue of systematic drill and review, and the supreme desirability of teaching pupils to speak and write clear, correct, forcible English.

NEW INTRODUCTIONS

Most of the teachers have felt the lack of books enough to carry on the work. A good many books have had to be bought to complete the stock already introduced. The new kinds ordered have been extra supplementary reading for the lower grades, and music for the high and grammar schools. All the new books, and some of the old ones have been given a coat of varnish on the outside which increases the wearing qualities and makes them dirt, germ and water proof.

Among the other new material introduced have been:

The Thompson drill sheets—a series of about forty different sets of papers containing the essentials of arithmetic, language, grammar, etc., in a form that enables us to teach the fundamentals of these subjects with all possible thoroughness and rapidity.

A special kind of word and number builder, for seat work, so that small pupils can do brisk, effective work in arithmetic and language by themselves when they are not reciting.

The substitution of daily dictation instead of the spelling of separate words in all grades, so that the pupils have not only the spelling, but the use of the words and constant practice in punctuation.

A certain method in primary arithmetic which enables the pupils to learn the combinations without acquiring the counting habit—one of the worst enemies of rapid, accurate number work in the primary grades.

RECOMMENDATIONS

A HEATING SYSTEM

The most desperate need at present is for an adequate heating and ventilation system in the village schoolhouse. The present system is utterly inadequate to make the rooms comfortable or to provide a proper supply of fresh air for so many occupants. Our teachers are extremely careful to have the windows open as much as possible, but even so, the air supply is far below the standard needed to keep the teachers and pupils in proper physical condition.

One furnace takes its fresh (?) air from the basement, the other from the front hall. No provision worth mentioning is made for foul air to escape, but the furnace is evidently supposed to be able to keep on pumping hot air into the room, like the pump of a bicycle tire. According to this theory, if the cracks were stopped up the building would probably explode. It is apparent that the system is wrong in theory and one has only to take off his overcoat and use his nose to have very tangible proof that it is wrong in practice.

Probably the most satisfactory and inexpensive way to heat and ventilate the building would be to equip each room with a room heater and keep the rooms warm enough so that the windows could be kept open with comfort. No less an authority than Dr. Woods Hutchinson says that window ventilation is by far the best method.

As to whether the town ought or can afford to do anything about this, perhaps I can offer no better opinion than that of the Indiana State Board of Health—a group of eminent physicians—who say in a recent bulletin :

“Parents in any locality would stop work and spend their last cent to prevent their children from being injured in any open and plainly seen way, but they do hesitate to prevent injury to their children when it occurs by a slow and not well understood process. To not properly ventilate a schoolhouse is to impose air starvation upon their children, and air starvation is far more injurious to health and destructive to life than bad and insufficient food.

In 1905 the exact death records collected by the State Board of Health in Indiana show that 12,107 persons die of diseases which directly attend air starvation, and how many deaths were the indirect result of the same cause can not be known. Consumption, pneumonia, coughs, colds, and all diseases of the breathing apparatus are induced by air starvation. Then why do we shut out the air and sicken and die? We do it because we are ignorant. It is a sin of the fathers which descends upon our children when we refuse to supply school-rooms with perfect ventilation."

This is a sober statement of reputable officials.

FURNITURE

New desks and seats are needed in the intermediate school as soon as possible. Middle size desks have been set up with primary seats so that more than half the pupils are obliged to sit in very uncomfortable and unhygienic positions because of this ill-assorted arrangement. The district ought to begin to equip one room a year with adjustable furniture so that in a few years all our schools would make a presentable showing in this particular. Many of the pupils have displayed commendable interest in repairing the old furniture, and they themselves have done much to scrape and refinish the desks that were badly hacked and carved. Some of the boys also painted the interior of the outbuildings and these have been kept in good condition since then.

MANUAL TRAINING

Though much good work has been done in the manual training department, the present wood-work-needlework-drawing-cooking combination is a difficult one for any person to fill satisfactorily. The subjects are such that imitation plays an important part and the teacher has to be master of each. Carpenters and needleworkers who are also drawing teachers are not easy to find, still less those who are all these and are cooks besides. The outfit we have for this work is wholly inadequate. There is neither room nor utensils for a fair sized class. In my opinion a good deal more money should be spent in this department or very little at all. It is absurd to give from one-half to one-eighth of a teacher's time per pupil to stitching or whitening while at the same time some pupils are getting but an average of one sixtieth of a teacher's time in the regular work.

AN ASSISTANT

Such overcrowding as we have had in the two intermediate rooms most of the year without an assistant is decidedly objectionable, not only because such large numbers overtax the strength of the teacher but because the children cannot get the individual attention they need to keep their work up to the standard. For the past few weeks an extra teacher has been employed and the work carried on after the Batavia plan, where one teacher devotes her time to class instruction and the other to work with individuals and small classes, who need special attention and extra drill. This plan is thoroughly economical and efficient and ought to be continued, If as assisant we could secure a special writing teacher it would be an added advantage.

JANITOR SERVICE AND REPAIRS

The janitor work in all buildings leaves much to be desired. In my opinion, the town should pay the janitors enough so that they can afford to sweep and dust rooms and corridors and sand the closets daily, oil the floors and wash windows as often as necessary and have rooms clean and comfortable before school begins.

The statement is often made that a schoolroom should be as clean as a hospital. Perhaps we are not ready to go so far as that yet but it is certain that pupils ought to be able to march out and in and take simple calisthenic exercises in the schoolroom without having to breathe in a cloud of germ laden dust.

Dusty wall paper should be removed in three of the buildings and the walls painted instead.

A new floor is needed in the room of the high school assistant.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

Other recommendations that I would make are as follows:

Adoption of the "Standard Program of Studies for the Secondary Schools of New Hampshire" and changes in the curriculum to bring it more into line with the "General Curriculum" there suggested.

A considerable increase in the amount of available reading material.

The adoption of a spelling book in upper grades that would provide a course in daily dictation.

The use of certain improvements in the outside closets that would tend to make them more cleanly and sanitary.

The purchase of more supply cases like those already in the outside schools. Each teacher in the village school should have a place to put a term's supply of books and materials in her own room.

Stove jackets for two of the rural schools similar to the one now in No. 4. These jackets act as a heating drum and tend to equalize the heat in the room.
